Hosp1-BLANK

This section is physically joined to the Hosp1 file but remains separate from the unilateral Art. 7 notice. The guest signs only the personal statements below, does not assume the host's statutory filing duty and, by this signature, accepts no contractual relationship concerning the property.

Nature and limits of this document

This is solely a unilateral administrative notice under Art. 7 of D.Lgs. 286/1998. It does not contain, document or set out an agreement between host and guest; it does not regulate delivery, exclusive use, return, rent, consideration, deposit, services or any guaranteed term, and it does not constitute a lease, sublease or written loan-for-use agreement. The dates and location identify only the facts notified and the plans stated on the signature dates. Any separate private-law relationship remains outside this form, which states no conclusion about its civil-law or tax treatment.

The written notice must reach the local public-security Authority within forty-eight hours. The first-page signature is solely that of the declarant/host; the guest's signature covers only the statements in this section and does not make her a co-declarant of the statutory notice.

Substitute declaration concerning identity — Art. 46

The undersigned _____, within the limits permitted by Arts. 3 and 46 of D.P.R. 445/2000, states that the personal details, residence and document particulars transcribed above correspond to her identity and to the originals, copies of which are attached. Where a datum falls outside the self-certification permitted by Art. 3 because of citizenship or a foreign source, this operates as a signed personal statement and the attached documents remain the primary evidence.

Substitute declaration of directly known facts — Art. 47

On the date of her signature, the undersigned states that her current plans are to stay at _____, within the property perimeter identified in the notice, from _____ to _____; that the passport and residence document particulars above correspond to the documents in her possession; and that, according to those documents and subject to every determination of the competent Authorities, she holds the stated documentary grounds to enter and stay lawfully in Italy and undertakes to comply with applicable law. She also states that she has not signed, by means of this form, any lease or loan-for-use agreement concerning the property.

The declarant is aware of the consequences under Arts. 75 and 76 of D.P.R. 445/2000 for untruthful statements made within the scope of that decree. Under Art. 38, the signed statement is accompanied by a copy of the identity document, unless a suitable and documented electronic or digital signature method is used.
