Learning Objective

Define a complete, measurable, and academically usable internship project.

ConI, Eligibility, and Responsibilities

Standard Intel proposals are intended for students actively enrolled, at the moment of application and activation, in a European university or equivalent recognised higher-education institution. Non-standard cases require separate legal review before acceptance.

Every candidate must read the current ConI Internship Agreement before submitting a final application. ConI governs responsibilities, insurance, academic activation, confidentiality, intellectual-property access, and the distinction between an educational internship and employment.

Participant Profile

Student enrolled in a relevant university programme, with sufficient technical autonomy for the activities listed below and with insurance/activation handled by the promoting entity.

Work Plan

The detailed work plan is defined in the filled project instance. The hours must add up to the total expected hours and must correspond to the ECTS/CFU value declared above.

Phase	Activities	Hours / allocation
1	Define project phases, evidence, and deliverables in the filled project instance.	0

Deliverables and Evaluation Evidence

Project deliverables are defined in the filled project instance.

Operational and Safety Boundaries

This proposal does not constitute employment and does not replace a student-specific internship agreement, university convention, insurance confirmation, or any mandatory public filing.

Future Collaboration Path

A successful internship may lead to future personal or professional collaboration, where legally and academically compatible.
